

colonization	The expansion of countries into other countries where they establish settlements and control the people establishment of colonies diversity	exhibiting a variety of types free enterprise	economic system characterized by freedom for consumers and producers immigration	the action of coming to live permanently in a foreign country indigenous	groups that are native to a particular region free enterprise - economic system characterized by freedom for consumers and producers manufacturing	businesses that produce consumer products migration	movement from one region to another multiculturalism	the preservation of different cultures or cultural identities within a unified society retail industries	businesses that sell directly to consumers service industries	businesses that provide labor intensive work rather than producing a product

---

wholesale industries

---

the business of selling products to retailers

---